

AMY DURANT

Regulatory Implementation Specialist, Office of Regulations
Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, (CFPB)

Amy Durant joined the Bureau in June 2015, and serves as an Attorney-Adviser for the Regulatory Implementation team. Prior to joining the Bureau, she was a partner at a Michigan law firm where she provided legal and compliance advice to financial institutions, mortgage lenders, mortgage brokers, and other financial service providers.

Education:

J.D., University of Michigan Law School

B.A., James Madison College, Michigan State University